The President's Draught

By Paul Shafer, Club President

The Salt City Brew Club is back on track, thanks to Richard Pekala, owner of OHM Lounge. Richard is excited to have our group meet at his spacious, well-situated lounge, as he loves good beer and wants to learn more about it. OHM Lounge is located on Franklin St, a few doors down from Kitty Hoyne's.

To better accommodate Richard though, we need to make some changes to the order of the meetings. OHM Lounge will be closed to the public from 7-8 pm. This will be the time the Salt City Brew Club will hold its Happy Hour. Members are encouraged to bring home-brewed beer for all to sample. Please try to bring enough beer for everyone to sample and label your beer with style and brewer, as we will have the beer on a central table. At 8 pm, all homebrew must be consumed and put away, and the meeting will start.

Before and after "Happy Hour" beers can be purchased from Richard's well-stocked bar. We will not be doing a variety of beer tastings; however, we will be doing a "featured beer of the month," which the club will buy from Richard. Established tasting fees will still apply.

Adon Allen, Special Events Coordinator for Anheuser-Busch, will be the guest speaker at this month's meeting. I met Adon at a beer tasting event at The Most after trying some of Budweiser's newest products, like their Pale Ale and Gluten-Free Beer. I was quite impressed, and I think you will be too.

*Cheers,
Paul*

PS: OHM Lounge does not serve food, so please eat before you come.

You know you're a Homebrewer:

IF you can't remember the last time you popped open a flip-top beer can.

IF you've ever gone to a redemption center to buy bottles.

IF your 10-year-old critiques the clarity and head retention of her root beer.

IF a waitress has said you're the first person ever to send a beer back.
